

Exposé X.3, X.4

Instantly see all open windows in every app and change the front window.

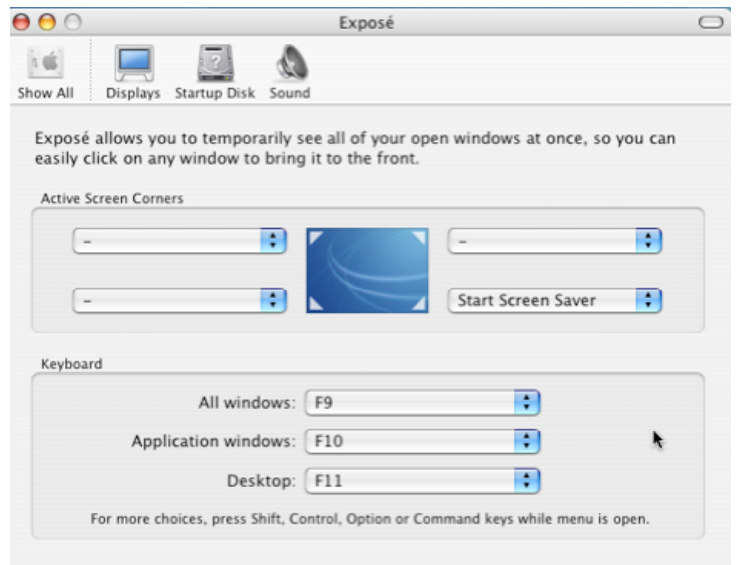

Exposé allows you to use function keys, screen corners, and mouse keys to perform certain actions with your computer.

- F9- see all open windows, click on a window to activate it
- F10-see all windows for a single application
- F11- see all items on the desktop
- Go to Apple Menu/ System Preferences and click Exposé for more options

Instantly see all open windows within a single app and tab between them.

- Activate various functions via a screen corner using the appropriate drop down menu

Instantly see all things on the desktop and drag a file

Images from Apple.com